Field Visit Report of the Event

Name of the Organisation	Missionaries of Charity Home for the Sick and Dying Destitute
Date	6 th March 2023 10:00 am – 11:00 am
Day	Monday
Members Accompanied the students	Ms. Dionne Bose
Total No. of Participants	14
Target Class/ Course	BA 1st and 3 rd Semester students
Highlights of the Event	The purpose of the Field Visit was to provide the students a chance to apply concepts of Psychology in a practical setting. Missionaries of Charity Home for the Sick and Dying Destitute in Venkatala Village, Yelahanka was started in 1970. The nuns selflessly look after people who are aged, disabled and/or psychiatric patients. The inmates are abandoned by their family and are destitute. The NGO houses 78 inmates. They receive: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Assistance with Day-to-day living *Healthcare services *Safety *Regular meals *Specialised healthcare *Housekeeping services *Social engagement The nuns look after babies abandoned in railway stations, bus stands and dust bins. They raise the babies and provide education so that they can become independent. The inmates who interacted with us welcomed us warmly. They are so full of life and faith even though they have been abandoned. The field visit helped the students to understand the psychological problems faced by the inmates and the care given to them. They learnt about Animal Assisted Therapy. In this kind of psychotherapy, the patients experience a change in their behaviour because of animals. Animals can help to reduce symptoms of anxiety, fear and worry. It also helps in bringing about a healthy blood pressure and hormone levels. It helps in social, emotional and cognitive functioning. It helps in reducing the symptoms of the inmates suffering from mental disorders. A small donation was made by collecting money from the faculty and students of Department of Arts. As part of community social service, we would like to contribute financially from the college as a whole in the future as well.

CHAPTER 1

INTRODUCTION

Focus:

The primary focus of the internship is to provide BBA students with practical exposure to the operations and management aspects of the Rail Wheel Factory. The internship aims to help students develop a better understanding of the manufacturing industry, specifically in the rail wheel sector, and gain valuable insights into business administration in a real-world setting.

Objective:

Learn about Rail Wheel Manufacturing: Gain hands-on knowledge of the entire rail wheel manufacturing process, from raw material procurement to the final product inspection.

Supply Chain Management: Understand the intricacies of managing a complex supply chain, including logistics, inventory management, and vendor relationships.

Production Planning: Observe and participate in production planning activities, including workforce management and capacity utilization.

Quality Assurance: Learn about quality control procedures and participate in quality checks to ensure adherence to industry standards.

Cost Analysis: Analyze production costs, operational expenses, and other financial aspects to comprehend the factors influencing pricing and profitability.

Business Communication: Enhance communication skills through interactions with various departments, suppliers, and stakeholders.

Scope:

During the internship, BBA students will have the opportunity to engage in various projects and tasks that align with their academic background and career interests. The scope of the internship includes:

Shadowing: Observe and accompany professionals in different departments, such as operations, finance, marketing, and human resources.

Project Assignments: Work on specific projects related to process optimization, cost reduction, market analysis, or any other relevant area.

Cross-Functional Exposure: Get exposure to multiple departments to understand how they collaborate and contribute to the overall functioning of the organization.

Limitations:

It is essential to be aware of the limitations associated with the internship at Rail Wheel Factory:

Limited Duration: The internship will have a predefined duration, and students may not be able to delve deep into all aspects of the industry within that time frame.

Safety Concerns: The manufacturing environment might involve certain safety risks, so interns must strictly adhere to safety guidelines.

Intellectual Property: Interns may not have access to sensitive or proprietary information due to confidentiality concerns.

Full-Time Responsibilities: As interns, students may not be involved in decision-making processes at the same level as full-time employees.

Organizational Constraints: Certain departments may have their own limitations or busy periods, affecting the level of involvement for interns.

Overall, the internship at Rail Wheel Factory offers a valuable opportunity for BBA students to gain practical experience, enhance their skills, and explore potential career paths in the manufacturing and business administration domain.
